

Guidelines for submission and participation

The official language of the Conference and the Conference Programme is English.

There are three categories of submissions: Symposium, Oral communication in thematic session, and Poster.

Submission categories

- Symposium: a set of at least four (4) but no more than five (5) oral communications with a common topic. Symposia are guaranteed a 90-minute slot.
- Oral communication: 15-minute oral presentation included in a thematic session.
- Poster: visual presentation as a scientific conversation starter (roll-up).

Several posters will be displayed in the designated area and will serve as a basis for interaction and discussion between the authors and interested scholars.

Guidelines for abstract submission

- Symposium: the symposium proponent should submit:
 - A description of the symposium (250 words abstract, including three keywords)
 - Four to five abstracts of oral presentations (250 words abstract, including three keywords),
 - Information about the authors - names, affiliations and email addresses.

Each symposium may have one discussant.

- Oral communication and poster: the author(s) should send
 - An abstract of no more than 250 words including three keywords
 - Information about the author(s) - names, affiliations and e-mail addresses.

Limitation: Each participant should not present more than two communications (but may chair or discuss an additional session).
